

IMPROVING COMMUNITY-WIDE POPULATION HEALTH

SOCIAL DETERMINANTS PLAY A SIGNIFICANTLY LARGER ROLE IN ONE'S HEALTH AND WELLBEING THAN CLINICAL CARE.¹

80% SOCIAL, BEHAVIORAL, ENVIRONMENTAL FACTORS

20% HEALTH CARE

TO IMPROVE HEALTH, COMMUNITIES NEED...

Collaboration between community-based and health care organizations that addresses all factors contributing to health.

Sustainable financing models to support addressing all determinants of health.

WHAT ELEMENTS ENCOURAGE COLLABORATION AND SUPPORT FINANCING?

SHARED DATA collection, analysis, & evaluation

A TRUSTED ENVIRONMENT
where collaboration is possible

ALIGNMENT
of clinical and community resources

PAYMENT AND FINANCING MODELS
to incentivize investments in social determinants of health

Together, these elements allow for innovations in payment and financing to improve community-wide population health.